In submitting Havildar Deputy Amildar's Kanarese Report No. 129 dated 12th ultimo with its enclosures, has the honour to solicit sanction to the Amalgamation of the two posts therein mentioned so that, the Kavalgar of the temple may be paid a decent salary and required to look after both the temple of Komaranahalli Ranganathaswami and the Garden attached to it.

2. The pay of these two appointments is at present so low as Rs: 1-10-8 and 1-6-8 respectively. The Salary not being sufficiently attractive, it has not been found possible to make either of these servants take any real interest in his work. The Gardener was only recently entertained and is reported to have been absent from duty since May last. His services may therefore be unconditionally dispensed with and his pay added on to that of the Temple Naval-Jan. The Garden being within easy distance from the temple and the work in neither being heavy, one man could without difficulty manage both in a satisfactory manner.
